

David Kolesar: Fly Fishing Instructor

David Kolesar has been fly fishing for more than forty years and he has fished numerous locations across North America, the Caribbean and Brazil, pursuing a variety of fish species. David has been a volunteer fly fishing/ fly tying instructor with the New Hampshire Fish & Game's Let's Go Fishing program for sixteen years. He has been an L.L. Bean fly casting instructor for three years and he is the current president and a fly tying instructor for the United Fly Tyers in Bedford. He is also on the board of directors for the Northeast Council of the Federation of Fly Fishers.